

Lessons with Aesop's Fables

THE SHEPHERD BOY & THE WOLF

Writing

The moral in The Shepherd Boy & the Wolf fable is, "Liars are not believed, even when they speak the truth." Rewrite the lesson in your own words. If someone else did not understand the meaning, how would you explain it to them?

